experience.

More than 60 years ago, collector and horticulturist Henry Francis du Pont (1880–1969) opened his childhood home, Winterthur, to the public. Today, Winterthur showcases a world-renowned collection of American antiques and decorative arts, reflecting both early America and the du Pont family's life at this glorious estate. Its 60-acre garden is among the nation's best, and its superlative research library serves scholars from around the world.

“The majestic mansions of Newport, RI, pale in comparison.”

—THE BOSTON GLOBE

explore.

Nestled in the heart of Delaware's beautiful Brandywine Valley, halfway between New York City and Washington, D.C., Winterthur is an American Treasure and one of the few surviving great American Country Estates.

Tour H. F. du Pont's spectacular 175-room former home and view elegantly furnished rooms in which du Pont entertained his family and friends in grand style. Take a narrated tram tour through du Pont's masterful 60-acre garden and enjoy a succession of showstopping blooms. Discover dazzling treasures displayed in the Campbell Collections of Soup Tureens, special exhibitions in the Winterthur Galleries, Spring Tour, and Yuletide at Winterthur—a remarkable holiday showcase that draws thousands of visitors annually.
