WINTERTHUR TO HOST REGIONAL INTERN OUTREACH DAY ON JULY 12

More than 15 public gardens and other environmental nonprofit organizations to participate

Winterthur, DE, July 5, 2018—Winterthur will host over 100 interns from more than 15 public gardens and other environmental nonprofit organizations in the region on July 12 for the 2018 Regional Intern Outreach Day. Participants will remove invasive plants in landscape areas at beloved Delaware gardens.

This annual events provides meaningful horticultural experience for regional interns, focusing on service while providing opportunities for networking and professional enrichment.

The off-site work locations are at Gibraltar and Brandywine Creek State Park.

Interns from the following organizations will participate: The Ambler Arboretum of Temple University, Chanticleer, Delaware Center for Horticulture, Delaware State Park, University of Pennsylvania's James G. Kaskey Memorial Park, Jenkins Arboretum, John James Audubon Center at Mill Grove, Longwood Gardens, Morris Arboretum, Mt. Cuba Center, Neighborhood Gardens Trust, Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, Rutgers Gardens, Scott Arboretum, Tyler Arboretum, University of Delaware Botanic Gardens, and Winterthur.

Winterthur—known worldwide for its preeminent collection of American decorative arts, naturalistic gardens, and research library for the study of American art and material culture—offers a variety of tours, exhibitions, programs, and activities throughout the year. General admission includes a tour of some of the most notable spaces in the 175-room house as well as access to the Winterthur Garden and Galleries, special exhibitions, a narrated tram tour (weather permitting), the Campbell Collection of Soup Tureens, and the Enchanted Woods children's garden.

Admission costs $20 for adults; $18 for students and seniors; and $6 for ages 2-11. Group rates available. For details, visit winterthur.org or call 800.448.3883.

Winterthur is open from 10 am to 5 pm, Tuesday-Sunday and is located on Route 52, six miles northwest of Wilmington, Delaware, and five miles south of U.S. Route 1. Closed on Mondays, Thanksgiving, and Christmas Day. Nestled in the heart of Delaware's beautiful Brandywine Valley, midway between New York City and Washington, D.C., Winterthur is located minutes from Longwood Gardens and other Brandywine Valley attractions—including world-class museums, gardens, and historic sites—as well as wineries, hotels, and restaurants.
