

WINTERTHUR PRESENTS A SUMMER EVENING OF ENTERTAINMENT WITH MUSIC ALONG THE BANK

Buffalo Chip & the Plainsmen Featured in Second Outdoor Summer Concert on Friday, June 21

WINTERTHUR, DELAWARE—Winterthur's exciting new outdoor concert series continues on Friday, June 21, with a rousing performance by local favorites Buffalo Chip & the Plainsmen. The concert will take place from 5:30–8:00 pm along the picturesque Clenny Run Bank and Cottage Terrace on the grounds of Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library.

Guests are invited to pack a picnic dinner, their favorite beverages, and lawn chairs or blankets and delight in the spirited sounds of Buffalo Chip & the Plainsmen.

Led by singer and guitarist Chip Porter and featuring members of local band Montana Wildaxe, Buffalo Chip & the Plainsmen mix a wide variety of acoustic styles including bluegrass, folk, country, Americana, rock, and blues. It's an evening of rollicking music sure to entertain the entire family.

Winterthur's Cottage Café will be open late for the performance, serving a unique menu of old favorites and exciting new items to visitors. Guests may also browse the Museum Store during the event or take a stroll along the bank while enjoying the show.

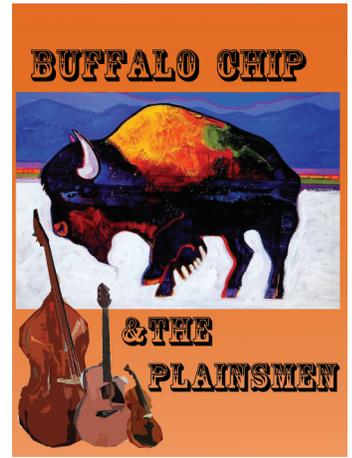

The final summer performance in the Music Along the Bank series will take place Friday, July 19, as local musicians the Unruhlies take the stage. After an August hiatus, the series will move to Saturdays when it resumes in September.

Members free. Nonmembers $10. Children under 13 free.
