

*Crafting a Narrative: Designing Costume for TV and Film:
A Winterthur Symposium with The Costume Society of America, Mid-Atlantic Region*

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12 | 9:00 AM–4:00 PM

Engage with leading and emerging scholars in the field of costume design for a study of design for both the big and the small screen. Jane Petrie, Emmy® award-winning costume designer for the Netflix series The Crown; Laura Mina, head of the textile conservation lab at Winterthur; and Dr. Damayanthie Eluwawalage, assistant professor of textile and apparel studies, Delaware State University, will present dynamic lectures on the industry, past and present. See the work of emerging scholars in interactive breakout sessions, and relish in these experts' interpretation of Winterthur's Costuming THE CROWN exhibition.

Registration opens September 3, 2019

Call 800.448.3883 or visit winterthur.org/crownevents.

Winterthur thanks The Costume Society of America, Mid-Atlantic Region, for its collaboration with this program.
