REVOLUTIONARY ARTIFACTS ON VIEW

Artifacts such as a 1775 musket and a book signed by Martha Washington—part of the collection from the Museum of the American Revolution, expected to open in 2017 in Philadelphia—form the loan exhibition for the 52nd Delaware Antiques Show, sponsored by Winterthur Museum on November 6 through 8 at the Chase Center, Wilmington.

On Friday, award-winning designer Thomas Jayne will deliver the keynote address. A graduate of the Winterthur Program in American Material Culture, Jayne embodies the spirit of the program's founder. "I see myself as a scholar-decorator much as Henry Francis du Pont, the founder of Winterthur, saw the ideal curator as part decorator, part librarian," he said.

Early shopping on Thursday evening and special lectures each day will complement fine examples of art, antiques, and design sold by more than 60 dealers. For information call 800.448.3883 or visit www.winterthur.org/das
