Winterthur to Host Costuming THE CROWN Panel Discussion

Meet the award-winning costume designers and creators for a behind-the-scenes look at this award-winning series.

Winterthur, DE, March 21, 2019—Join us for a special event featuring an exclusive panel of costume designers and creators from The Crown, including Suzanne Mackie, creative director at Left Bank Pictures and executive producer of The Crown, and Emmy®-award winning designers Michele Clapton and Jane Petrie.

Costuming THE CROWN will feature 40 iconic costumes from the Emmy® and Golden Globe award-winning drama from March 30, 2019, through January 5, 2020. The Netflix Original series, produced by Left Bank Pictures in association with Sony Pictures Television, is a dramatized history of Queen Elizabeth II's early reign. The exhibition reveals everything from the majesty of royal crowns and tiaras to the private looks worn by the royal family in quiet moments. The exhibition explains the importance of costume design to the story, showing how costume design is used to complement drama, re-create history, and define character.

Critics have lauded The Crown, nominated for 26 Primetime Emmy® awards and winning multiple Golden Globes, including Best Drama. Clapton won an Emmy® for Outstanding Period Costumes, and Petrie won the Costume Designers Guild Award for Excellence in Period Television for their work on the show.

Winterthur—known worldwide for its preeminent collection of American decorative arts, naturalistic gardens, and research library for the study of American art and material culture—offers a variety of tours, exhibitions, programs, and activities throughout the year.
