New Passport Introduces Creative Kids to Museums

Visit all four institutions for family fun—and win a prize.

Winterthur, DE, May 7, 2019—Play, learn, create, and spend quality family time at Delaware’s museums of art and culture through the DE Creative Kids Passport program. Get your passport at the Biggs Museum of Art, the Delaware Art Museum, the Delaware Contemporary, or Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library, then collect a stamp at each and win a special prize. Activities at each offer fun for kids of all ages.

Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library

Whether your kid is clever, contemplative, crafty, or creative, a fulfilling learning experience awaits at Winterthur. Let imaginations soar in Enchanted Woods children’s garden, where 3- to 5-year-olds can enjoy Story Time on the first and third Thursdays, April through October. Help your elementary-age student avoid the summer slump during Terrific Tuesdays in July and August. Kids can travel back in time in a delightful space where everything is touchable in the Touch-It Room. Saturdays feature Hands on History Cart from 1:00 pm–3:00 pm through November 23. Enchanted Summer Day on June 15, Truck and Tractor Day on October 5, and Enchanted Winter Day on December 7 offer full days of family fun. Most activities and programs are included with admission.

The Delaware Art Museum

Delaware Art Museum offers several family programs every week. Glory of Stories on Fridays introduces young visitors to the museum through a story, interactive tour, and art-making.

Family 2nd Sundays offers family yoga March through October, Art Museum Babies, Young Artist Storytime, the Lunch Bunch in the Café, and Sunday Studio artmaking for ages 6+. Kids' Corner lets you pop into the museum's family-friendly education space to relax, explore, and discover what's new. Kids' Corner is transformed by Families-in-Residence, who create new art installations for creative play.

The Delaware Contemporary

The Delaware Contemporary is the perfect destination for busy families interested in experiencing the art of today. Its Discover Cart on First Fridays and Discover Collection provide a personalized visit for guests, who can curate their own experience. There is always something new to discover as activities change with the exhibitions on display.
