How did you learn a trade long ago? How do we learn our trades today?

What tools did we use long ago? Are they the same or different today?

Who makes the objects we use in our everyday lives?