

WINTERTHUR'S CERAMICS CONFERENCE, APRIL 23–24, 2015

From All Points of the Compass: Ceramics Travel the World

WINTERTHUR, DELAWARE—This year's conference focuses on ceramics that were marketed internationally—from China to the United States to Mexico and beyond. Upon arrival, some of these world-traveling vessels and dishes, in turn, inspired the creation of new wares. Join us for lectures presenting recent research by Winterthur staff and an international group of respected visiting scholars. Attend hands-on workshops offering up-close access to the Winterthur collection.
